Chicago Gives Hearty Welcome To White Sox

American League Champions Will Start Strenuous Practice To-day

CHICAGO, Oct. 3.—Bringing with them the first championship Chicago has won in the American League in eleven years, the champion White Sox returned to-day to begin final practice for the world series with New York, which begins Saturday.

Practice will be started to-morrow morning, Manager Rowland announced. The players will be kept on the field practically all day. Rain prevented the practice game to-day with the Cleveland Americans, and the players spent the afternoon receiving congratulations from Charles A. Comiskey, owner of the club.

Feast for Players

To-night they were entertained at dinner by the Woodland Bards, an organization composed of Mr. Comiskey's friends. Covers for 1,500 persons were laid.

Chicago fans will have a final opportunity to-morrow to see the New York club in action before the series. The National League champions will play an exhibition game with the Chicago Nationals at Weegman Park. The contest is designed to put the Giants on edge for the series.

Manager Rowland of the Chicago club announced to-night that he would extend an invitation to Manager McGraw of the Giants to use the White Sox field for practice Friday any time the club desires.

"If my team is on the field and McGraw wants to use it, I'll call the players off," Rowland said. "There will be no repetition of the 1914 series, when George Stallings, manager of the Boston club, raised a protest because of the alleged turnover he received from Manager Schalk of Philadelphia over the use of the Athletics' field for practice."

Scalpers Promise Tickets

With the distribution of the reserved and box seats set for to-morrow, scalpers said they would place seats on sale at noon to-morrow. The seats are asking $5 for three box seats which sold for $35 and $35 for reserved seats for a face value of $1.50. These seats have a face value of $1.50. They will form plans to prevent scalping at the ball park.

Freeport Defeated By St. Paul's Eleven

St. Paul's School ran roughshod over the Freeport High School in their annual football game at Garden City yesterday. At no time were the Freeport boys dangerous, and they suffered a decisive defeat by a score of 50 to 0. Eight touchdowns and two goals therefrom netted the winners their points.

St. Paul's recovered gamely after its first exhibition against Boys' High School last Saturday, and played a strong game. The Freeport line was smashed with ease by Bigelow, Johnson and Peixotto, with the first named playing an outstanding part in this respect. Bigelow and Peixotto scored two touchdowns, while Johnson added three.

Many trick formations and clever plays were successfully executed by the St. Paul's team. It also succeeded in completing four long forward passes, and Vanderbilt, the left end, resulting in his running of twenty yards for a touchdown.

The line-up follows:

Fordham Eleven Has Hard Drill

The Fordham football squad had the hardest drill of the week yesterday afternoon. The varsity and scrub elevens lined up in a scrimmage that was full of fight. Several of the positions are not permanently determined on the first team and, with an order from Coach McCaffery to cut loose, the players were drilled on the attack. Galligan and Halligan, the scrub backs, however, had a trial in the varsity backfield. The former, who played at the high school of Commerce last season, showed up well, making several good gains by fast running and clever dodging.

Left Erwig will probably not play against the ambulance club. His right arm is still heavily bandaged. Should Erwig be unable to play, Collette, former Fordham Prep player, will work at left halfback.

City College Sophs Win Tug-of-War Test

The sophomore class of the College of the City of New York won the yearly tug-of-war contest in the Lewisohn stadium yesterday. The freshmen won on a foul in the 100-men tug. By their victory the sophs get the student council plaque.

Army Batters Scrub Eleven In Hour's Work

WEST POINT, N. Y., Oct. 3.—There was plenty of football at West Point today. Aside from the big mid-week drill of the 'varsity and scrub in their preparation for the opening game with Carnegie Tech on Saturday, the Army's Cullum Hall squad took on two visiting elevens for regular games. The eleven is made up of new recruits and others of the battalion who have not yet shown enough proficiency to entitle them to enter into the big squad. The Army's 'scrub' was both games, defeating Yonkers High School in the first game, 6 to 0, and Erasmus Hall High School, of Brooklyn, in the other, 7 to 0.

The 'varsity' mauling the scrub for an hour's session. Oliphant, McGuire, the Montana star, and Vandegriff starred in the scrimmage work, which netted the big team three touchdowns. The grandstands are in position, and the cadets are all ready for the "blow-off" with the Carnegie Tech team, which is coming here for the first time on Saturday.

Berry Leads Penn To Easy Victory

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 3.—The University of Pennsylvania football team overhauled the Albright eleven, 73 to 10, in the opening game of the season on Franklin Field to-day. Pennsylvania smashed through the visitors' line almost at will, scoring ten touchdowns and a field goal.

Yates, of Albright, scored his eleven's only touchdown when he caught a pass and raced three-quarters of the length of the field. This occurred in the final quarter, when the Red and Blue team was composed of second string men.

The line-up follows:

N. Y. U. Eleven Shows Results of Practice

The New York University football team showed the results of a week's stiff training in a two-hour scrimmage held on Ohio Field yesterday afternoon. Skill at receiving forward passes from all angles was shown by Gardner, who is a new second baseman, playing like a veteran at right end. Gilloon, the left end, another new candidate, displayed speed in following up punts.

For Carlisle the principal second team players had a tryout, and Dickenson used all of her strength. Coaches Harry and Dunn instructed their men from vantage points behind the scrimmage line. Leroy, Tibbets, Herman and Miles starred for the Indians, while Dickinson Swope, Young and Bower featured.

Carlisle, Penn., Oct. 3.—The Carlisle Indians and the Dickinson College eleven met in practice combat on the Indians' gridiron this afternoon. Scores were not kept, but both teams showed relatively good form on both offense and defense, considering their brief training periods.

Cards Take First Game From Browns

ST. LOUIS, Oct. 3.—Baird's hit in the ninth inning scored Hornsby with the run to give the St. Louis Cardinals a 3 to 2 victory over the St. Louis Browns in the first game of the fall series to-day.

Chicago Slugger Has Been Responsible for 100 Tallies and Bronx Idol Has Accounted for 98—Jackson and Kauff Also Have Made Fine Showing

OF the men who will participate in the coming world series, Oscar Felsch for the Sox and Heinie Zimmerman for the Giants lead in driving in runs, the Chicago slugger being a century plant and the New Yorker almost one.

Felsch has driven in 100 tallies, Zimmerman 98. The players with the next best records are Jackson (for Chicago), 81 runs driven in, and Kauff (for New York), 66.

Each team has five men with records of fifty or better.

The World Series Round-Up

THE 50-50 SERIES

In the big majority of World Series offered in the past, there have always been pretty definite ideas advanced as to which club would win.

The Non-Combantant, by moving out into the highways and the byways, had no great trouble in collecting the popular verdict. This impending series has been a different affair. No one recalls a series in the past where the two contenders looked to be evenly matched. We picked out four major league ball players who are close observers, and who, in the past, have nearly always been on the right side.

On this occasion none of the four could see any advantage either way. "Fifty-Fifty" was the combined verdict. "The break of the game alone can decide the answer."

THE LINE OF STRENGTH

Chicago's best chance runs along the Line of Strength that carries four pickets.

It starts with Schalk and ends at Felsch. The order is Schalk, Cicotte, Collins and Felsch.

This line runs through the center of the White Sox machine, and is the bulwark of the White Sox defense and one of the main factors in attack.

These four men are all stars of the first order. More than a few neutral observers believe that Cicotte and Schalk will prove to be the great battery of the series; the best of the lot.

And still more believe that Collins and Felsch will be the respective infield and outfield stars of the engagement.

They figure Collins the best infielder on either club and Felsch the best outfielder.

The general verdict seems to be that Felsch, as a defensive outfielder, ranks next to Speaker in the Go-Get-'em circuit. And Felsch can hit.

COLLINS

"As far as you can figure anything in baseball," comments Manager Rowland, "Collins is almost sure to be at his best—and one of the big stars of the series."

"Collins is a great ball player at all times. But through the season he is inclined to keep his strength in reserve. He isn't physically powerful enough to hold a dashing pace all the year. If he tried to he would soon be worn to a whisper. But in a five, six or seven game meeting he can let himself go and move at top speed. And when he does he can carry a whole ball club with him."

"Eddie has already been in four World Series. He played great defensive ball in all four. And in only one of the four did he slip back at bat. A championship series where he can afford to give everything he has is the place that finds him at his best. I know Collins has been below 300 this year, but I'll be badly jolted if he doesn't reach 300 in this championship."

"There are a few World Series types that are pretty close to certainties. Baker was one. So was Duffy Lewis. So was Harry Hooper. So is Herzog. But I don't believe any of them reach their best form in as many different branches as Collins does—at the bat, in the field and around the bases."

A SERIES CLUB

Manager Rowland had another point to offer for the earnest consideration of those fanatics who esteem the dope.

"The Sox," he said, "are one of the best short series clubs I ever saw. Some clubs are at their best over a long stretch, but not so good in a short oash. The Sox have stamina, but they can also sprint. Last fall, in the city championship, I never saw a ball club change quicker. They went to that series with a smash. A few of the men may get careless over the pennant schedule, but when it comes to a shorter affair they all swing in with everything they have. This last season we were able to win almost every important thing they have. Figuring in all these details, I believe the Sox will be the best looking machines for the next few days that ever bagged a championship."

WHITE SOX HOPES

But after all it is that Line of Strength from Schalk on to Felsch that is carrying the bulk of White Sox Hopes.

Schalk, Cicotte, Collins, Felsch—no wonder Rowland believes his main highway is guarded far beyond ordinary ways.

The Giants in rebuttal offer McCarthy, Schupp, Herzog and Kauff, a first class group, but one that is hardly as strong as its rival.

The Giants are just as strong to the right of this dividing line and a bit stronger to the left. But each one of these four spots is a vital position and the total is sure to be a mighty factor.

In the Sox camp they include: (1) The best catcher in baseball; (2) the leading pitcher of the league; (3) the best second baseman in baseball; (4) the third best outfielder in the league, topped only by Cobb and Speaker for all around value.

Brooklyn Gets An Even Break With the Braves

Brooklyn divided yesterday's double-header, the Braves taking the first game, 9 to 3, and the home team the second, 3 to 1.

Rudolph kept the Brooklyn hits scattered in the opening contest until the ninth, when four were bunched for two runs. The visitors batted Cheney and Coombs hard, knocking the latter out of the box in one inning, when Covington hit for a home run, Smith and Fitzpatrick trilled, Kelly walked and Trappesinger singled, four runs resulting.

Marquard registered his nineteenth victory of the season when he beat Boston in the second game. The Dodgers scored their runs off Taylor by long drives. Cutshaw and O'Rourke led in the batting.

The final two games of the season are scheduled for to-day.

Yankees Win And Lose as Curtain Drops

Athletics Capture First Game but Go Down to Defeat in Second Contest

By Charles A. Taylor

The Yankees made a strong finish. They won the last game of the season yesterday, by a score of 3 to 2, the Athletics being on the losing end. Connie Mack had the satisfaction, however, of seeing his boys capture the first contest of the double-header by the count of 3 to 1.

Wild Bill Donovan, who disdained to get into uniform on this inauspicious occasion, directed his men from various boxes in the garb of an ordinary fan. Bill first settled down in a box back of the screen, and then, as the sun moved, Bill moved, for it was very chilly at the Polo Grounds.

Youngsters on Mound

Two youngsters performed on the mound in the first of the two encounters. Naylor was Connie's choice and Piercy was the pick of Donovan. Both showed considerable skill in taming the batters until the eighth inning, when Piercy did some cracking under the strain after two men were out.

McInnis singled, Shannon, Connie's new shortstop, walked, and both crossed the plate as the result of safe blows struck by Grover and Pleinich. Wild Bill vainly inserted two pinch hitters, Gilhooley and Hendryx, in the ninth inning.

The outcome of the second game also was decided in the eighth, but this time the Yanks did the deciding. The pitching was done by McGraw and McGraw for the Yankees and Myers for the Athletics. Walter Pipp began the eighth with a single to center field. Lamar followed up the attack with a safety to right, on which Pipp made third, despite Jameson's fine throw. It was a close call for Wallie. Lamar in the meantime had dashed to second. Vick dodged to left, Bodie making a rather feeble effort to hold the blow.

Shoemaker caught by Lamar. The fielding features of the closing battle were the double play by Nunnemaker and Ward in the ninth inning and a shoestring catch of Sharnan's low liner by Lamar in the fourth frame. There were about a thousand fans in the stands and bleachers to bid the Yankees good-bye until next year.

It is more than probable that many of those who appeared in Yankee costume in the last act of the passing show of 1917 will not be present when the first act of the 1918 bill is presented by Colonel Ruppert.
